One of the county's best-kept dining secrets is this open terrace above Mario Batali's Port Chester restaurant. Snag a table under the rooftop pergola to sip some wine and dine on light summer fare like caponata, pastas, and thin crust pizzas.

Winston

The trendy yet casual setting at the indoor/outdoor rooftop at Winston in Mount Kisco has people buzzing. And every Wednesday, the rooftop hosts rotating entertainment and fun dining options like a funky Korean-barbecue night.

Fortina Pizza Surf Club

If you're looking for rooftop dining with a laid back Brooklyn vibe, look no further than Fortina's new

Pizza Surf Club in Stamford. Quirky tiki drinks, Sicilian slices, and casual bar foods (with a twist, of course) make the short trip over the Connecticut border worth your time. The rooftop is open weekdays after 3 pm or weekends after 12 pm.
